IMPORTANT: Please read notes overleaf

1. Please insert the total number of shares held by you. If you have shares entered against your name in the Depository Register (as defined in Section 81F of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore), you should insert that number of shares. If you have shares registered in your name in the Register of Members of the Company, you should insert that number of shares. If you have shares entered against your name in the Depository Register and shares registered in your name in the Register of Members, you should insert the aggregate number of shares against your name in the Depository Register and registered in your name in the Register of Members. If no number is inserted, this form of proxy will be deemed to relate to all the shares held by you.
2. A member of the Company who is not a Relevant Intermediary* is entitled to appoint not more than two proxies to attend and vote, speak and vote on his/her/its behalf at the AGM of the Company, save that no such limit shall be imposed on the number of proxies appointed by members which are nominee companies. A member of the Company which is a corporation is entitled to appoint its authorised representative or proxy to vote on its behalf. Where such member appoints two proxies, he/she/it shall specify the proportion of his/her/its shareholding (expressed as a percentage of the whole) to be represented by each proxy. If no such proportion or number is specified, the first named proxy may be treated as representing 100% of the shareholding and any second named proxy as an alternate to the first named.
3. A proxy need not be a member of the Company.
4. A member who is a Relevant Intermediary* is entitled to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote on his/her/its behalf at the AGM of the Company. Where a member appoints more than two proxy, he/she/it shall specify the proportion of his/her shareholding to be represented by each proxy in the form of a proxy.
*Relevant Intermediary is:
  - (a) a banking corporation licensed under the Banking Act 1970 of Singapore or a wholly-owned subsidiary of such a banking corporation, whose business includes the provision of nominee services and who hold shares in that capacity; or
  - (b) a person holding a capital markets services license to provide custodial services for securities under the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore and who holds shares in that capacity; or
  - (c) the Central Provident Fund Board established by the Central Provident Fund Act 1953 of Singapore, in respect of shares purchased under the subsidiary legislation made under that Act providing for the making of investments from the contributions and interest standing to the credit of members of the Central Provident Fund, if the Board holds those shares in the capacity of an intermediary pursuant to or in accordance with that subsidiary legislation.
